The Clothing War.
EDITOR GAZETTE: In the Journal of October 3d, I find an announcement signed L. Abrahams, of the White House. This announcement sets forth that other dealers in clothing keep "humbly shops" and offer "unsalable goods" to the public. He also believes that these "humbly shops" are to deceive the public. I represent, for my part of the humbuggery, Mr. Editor, I represent that when I offer "unsalable goods" I always suffer for it, and not Mr. Abrahams. The people have worn my goods long enough to know better than Mr. Abrahams whether they come from a "humbly shop" or not. During my many years residence and business in Reno, I have made my own reputation and it is safe from the interested charges brought by this newcomer at the White House.
Now, whether I keep a humbug shop or not, I shall continue to sell the best goods in market and at the lowest rates. I shall sell men and boys clothing cheaper than "Whitey" can sell them. I shall keep more goods, and a resher stock always on hand. And all of these assertions, so far from being "lies to deceive the public" can be proved by my patrons during fair weeks as they have been proven any time during the past ten years.
M. NATHAN,
Virginia Street.

Don't Forget It.
If you are troubled with nervousness, are disheartened, tired of life, fear death or feel out of sorts, as the saying is, you may safely conclude that you have the Dyspepsia or Liver Complaint. The liver is very apt to become torpid at this season of the year, as poisons arising from marshes, stagnant water are more numerous, and are, through inhalation, taken into the blood. Unless the liver is strong and active, and furnishes a supply of fresh and pure blood to drive out the impurities, the above mentioned symptoms surely follow, and if not heeded, end in more terrible diseases and death. White's Prairie Flower proves itself the great liver panacea. Its action on the liver is different from any medicine ever compounded. Its cures are truly wonderful. Try it. Price, twenty-five cents and seventy-five cents. For sale by our druggists, O'Connell & Sons, Reno, Nev.

SPECIAL NOTICE.—Dr. H. Cohen, of New York, the most celebrated Optician that ever visited the Pacific Coast, has arrived and will remain at Barnett's store, corner of Commercial Row and Virginia street, two days. Returning, will leave Willow Ranch at 7 a. m. on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays, arriving in Reno at 9 p. m. on the following days. Fare, $30 each way. Freight on baggage over 30 pounds, 8 cents per pound. Office at Hammond & Wilson's stable, opposite Railroad depot.
John Wilson, Agent.
Oct 12

CLOTHING.—Grand Reopening of the White House, next door to the Postoffice. Having purchased the entire stock of Men's and Boys' Clothing and Furnishing Goods of Messrs. Cohen & Isaacs, and made a large addition thereto, I am prepared to sell this clothing at lower rates than any merchant in Reno. I respectfully solicit the patronage of the public, and am convinced that on the examination of my stock, and the price at which I sell, that no person who gives me a call will go away empty handed.
Oct 11

OPENING DAYS.—The many patrons of Madames Harney & Brown, will be pleased to note that Friday and Saturday, October 4th and 5th, have been set aside for an opening display of their new fall and winter stock of Millinery. EDITORIAL NOTES.

Deacon Parkinson, better known as Verbum Sap, is bound to beat somebody on the Republican ticket. He shows that he is a man of weight and influence. He signed a petition to lease Mr. Mighels from his place and now wages bitter war against lieutenant-governor, because he ed himself to be released. Sap is noted for just this sort of procedure. The course of his the bullion tax was one of cringes and bows before powers which sought to bill. Long after the Deacon hung to the dead that among the in 1879 would be upon bullion.

Theodore Ty Europe and mind to the ful lecture Germany the was cessful Pacific is.

Elko has, according to the Independent, "young men who furnish all the symptoms of advanced hoodlums." This looks well for a Democratic triumph.

Party tactics do not seem to call out a large amount of talent or skill, is the elegant utterance of the San Francisco Bulletin. The Bulletin man should come to Nevada, to improve both his English and experience.

Poor Sandy Austin's memory is getting badly battered. Rich men should cotton to journalists instead of actresses. Its more comfortable and posthumously considered, decidedly more profitable.

They have had a Democratic rally in Elko, and the saloons are one by one going into bankruptcy. Republican missionaries have now a chance for free lushi.

Deacon Parkinson (who is a citizen of the United States) informs the universe that Harry Mighels doesn't like President Hayes. Rutherford will get his back up on the receipt of this copy of the GAZETTE.

Mr. Daggett is talked of to-day as the most pronounced friend of the honest labor, who has ever come before the people of this State for office. One thing is sure, whatever Daggett means he says and he can get the best of any Deal you give him.

The Carson Appeal prints a list of the signatures which appeared upon the absolute petitions. They seem entirely sufficient to warrant a change of base, if petitions can ever accomplish that object.

Kearney will Remain.

BRIGATON, Mass., October 10.—Last Sunday afternoon, while addressing a large assembly of workmen in South Boston common, Kearney, in speaking of the manner in which men were elected to office at the last election in California, told them they should do the same here. "The next mayor of Boston," said Kearney, "should be nominated here, and if I were here he would be—and elected." Since then he has been importuned by them to remain here until after the municipal election, which takes place December 5th, and to-day he agreed to do so, and will keep up the Sunday afternoon meetings in the common, sand-lot style. He has addressed enthusiastic meetings near Boston this week. His secretary will leave for California the first of next week on important business for the cause.

A Smart Boy and a Big Fire.

NEW YORK, October 10.—Just after ninety employees of K. N. Meyers' chair factory, at 331 East Sixty-first street, had resumed work this afternoon an errand boy whispered to the foreman that the factory was on fire. So successful was the precaution on the part of the boy and the speedy action of the foreman, that nearly every one of the hands was safely out of the building before the cause of the fire was generally known. The factory was soon burned to the ground, and the fire extended to tenement houses on First avenue, burning a long row to Sixty-second street, and then igniting another block of tenements, all of which were totally or partially destroyed. Loss, $93,000; insurance, $33,000.

Carlton's command, chasing the Indians in Nebraska, has not even found their trail, and it is supposed the wily red-skins have scattered through the hills.

CONDENSED TELEGRAMS.

Bishop Galberry, of the Catholic diocese of Hartford, Conn., is dead. The Russian army in Roumelia amounts to 130,000 men.

In Turkish and Greek cities idea is gaining ground that it is inevitable.

Seventy-one battalions of the 12,000 Albanians are in the Balkans.

R. N. Meyer's chair factory in New York was destroyed by fire on the 10th.

An errand boy quietly informed the foreman that the factory was on fire.

Soon after the fire started, ninety workmen were got out without knowing what was the cause.

A prairie fire thirty miles square is reported from Minnesota, doing a great amount of damage.

Spain demands reparation from Morocco for the murder of a Spanish official at Tetuan.

The Democrats of Westchester district, New York, have renominated Clarkson N. Potter for congress.

Full returns from the Connecticut town elections show that 80 towns went Republican, 55 Democratic and 30 evenly divided. Last year 70 were Republican, 69 Democratic and 26 divided.

The present state treasurer of Missouri and his predecessors have been arrested for deriving benefit from the deposit of public moneys and for embezzlement.

Kearney deserts California. His furniture has been shipped from San Francisco to Boston.

T. J. Gallagher, formerly attorney for the French savings bank has been ordered to show cause why he should not give $1,000,000 to indemnify the directors from any loss which may accrue from the appointment, at his request, of F. E. Low as receiver; also, why the order appointing such receiver should not be vacated.

The San Pablo and Tulare railroad has recovered as damages, in their case before Judge Drinnelle, the following amounts: L. L. Robinson, $16,380 15; William Carter, $196; Nathaniel Hill, $57; Louis Lettner, $25; Skelton & Whiting, $8250; Eliza Fitzgerald, $8553; John W. Stickler, $5618.

A. Boges, who murdered M. A. Sweeney in San Pedro, A. T., has been surrendered by the authorities of Sonora.

Thomas H. Brent, of Walla Walla, has been nominated for delegate to congress by the Republicans of Washington Territory.

Heavy robberies of money and freight from the Texas and Pacific and Houston and Texas Central railroads have been detected, and include many men of high business standing, together with officers, conductors and agents.

A verdict was rendered in San Francisco on the 10th against the city and county, in favor of a Chinaman for $785 57, for damages inflicted by hoodlums.

Wong Bou, a Chinese carpenter of Stockton, died on the 10th from the effect of a terrible gash in the abdomen, inflicted by his own hand.

The gold yield of Cassair is said to be increasing. The finding of an $8,000 nugget there is reported.

Body Found.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 11.—This morning the body of an unknown man, apparently about 30 years of age, was found lying in the old Mansion house lot, on Dupont, between California and Sacramento streets. The corpse was discovered by an officer who had it conveyed to the city receiving hospital, where an examination was made by the police surgeon, which showed a wound in the head, such as might have been made with an iron bar or heavy wooden club. The nose was also broken. Deceased was poorly dressed.

A Terrible Outrage in Indiana.

INDIANAPOLIS, October 11.—A dispatch to the Indianapolis News says on Monday night seven negroes outraged four white women near Mount Vernon, Posey county. Last night the sheriff attempted to arrest some of them, was killed by Daniel Williamson, colored. This morning a mob of nearly three thousand gathered, shot Williamson, hanged two others, and are preparing to hang the rest. Great excitement prevails.

Fatal Shooting in Kentucky.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., October 9.—A special dispatch from Harrodsburg, Kentucky, to the Courier-Journal, says: "C. C. Bonta, a farmer living near Nevada, a small town in Mercer county, six miles from Harrodsburg, shot and fatally wounded a young man named Hamilton, residing at the same place, this evening. The shooting was the result of a previous quarrel about money matters."

The Yellow Fever.

MEMPHIS, Oct. 11.—The weather is sultry with warm showers this morning. Relief trains under the direction of the Howard association were sent out this morning on the Louisville, Memphis and Charleston railroad. From noon yesterday until noon today 33 deaths are reported by undertakers. Fifteen of these died since last night at 6 o'clock.

Jealousy and Murder.

St. Louis, October 10.—Joseph Kotowsky, a bar-tender, shot and killed a servant girl named Augusta Somers, about 8 o'clock this evening, on Eighth street, between Chateau avenue and Hickory street. Jealousy is supposed to have been the cause. The murderer gave himself up.

Too Much For Clay.

he republican rally last night was a grand success. The Academy of Music was very well attended, there being a large number of ladies among the audience. Dr. Hutchings called the meeting to order.

R. M. DAGGETT.

The first speaker was R. M. Daggett, candidate for congress. Have you heard the news from Ohio? asked Mr. Daggett. Have you heard the news from Indiana, and Iowa and Colorado? There the Republicans have got away with the Democratic greenbacks. The speaker dwelt upon the importance of returning Republicans to congress. The Democrats have now a majority of six in the senate and eighteen in the house. They desire to secure if possible both houses and then look out for the rebel war claims. The Democrats are knocking at the door with $200,000,000 of those claims. The states-rights Democrats are becoming bold again. There is the same difference between the Republican and Democratic theories of government as between the ideas of the French sans culottes and those of decent and responsible Frenchmen. One means communism, division and anarchy, the other a strong government, Mexico with its record of fifty revolutions is an example of the Democratic idea worked out to its legitimate conclusion. The Democratic platform is a bundle of blunders and heresies. It is strange the love the Democracy has for greenbacks these days. The Democrats repudiated them in 1832, but now they are ready to issue $2,000,000,000 of them and knock them down as low as forty cents on the dollar, and shut our silver out of circulation. They are great on retrenchment, too. It has ever been their cry. They were crying for retrenchment in 1850 when money was needed to save the nation, when we needed money to buy bread for our soldiers. For the past seventeen years the Democrats have not had much to do with public place, but it must be said that where the boys have had a chance they have done well. The speaker in this convention was reminded of the member of the California legislature from Siskiyou and his only speech. That worthy Democrat arose and thundered: "By God, there's $750,000 in the treasury. Move we make her!" The Democracy makes a sweet record when it gets a chance. Last year in Ohio out of forty-six Democratic office-holders, twenty-eight were defaulters. The brethren got away with $650,000 among them, but about $22,000 of the booty have been recovered. There is another interesting claim set up by the Democracy. It claims to be the party of labor. Great God! Such a claim from such a party! A party the very corner-stone of which was slavery. The Republican party is the true friend of labor—but of free, untrammelled labor. Mr. Daggett thought he had a right to speak with authority on that point, for he was a laborer himself. He was born in the wilderness and first saw civilization on the Pacific coast. As a pioneer, miner, practical printer, and at the editorial desk he had always done his work and done it faithfully, and he expected to die with the harness on his back.

A voice—How about the Chinese? Mr. Daggett showed a decided willingness to tackle the Chinese question. It was under a Democratic national administration that the Chinese were first permitted to come to the country and it was under a Democratic administration in California that they were encouraged to come to the coast. The messages of old Governor Bigler on the subject are yet to be seen. It was a Republican senator and a Republican senate who fixed it so that there could be no naturalization of the Chinese. Mr. Daggett had no love for the Chinese. Let them leave. They have no right to be in the way of Anglo-Saxon advancement. He looked upon them, and would treat them like grasshoppers.

A voice—How would you get rid of them? "By legislation if possible," replied Mr. Daggett, "and if we can't unite the Gordian knot with our fingers I would cut it by the sword." [Applause.] Going into the question of fares and freights, Mr. Daggett said that it was monstrous that a state with 60,000 population should pay four million dollars a year to a railroad. It would be different if the railroad earned the money honestly from the people of Nevada, but it does not. We have to pay freight upon goods which come from the east to Sacramento and back. This is an outrage and must be stopped. The regular freight charge is reasonable enough. It is elected—which he believed it would be—he would endeavor to fix the regular rate for all distances and stop the unjust discrimination. He would make a pick-handle fight for it, too.

Mr. Daggett took up some of the statements of Deal, his eminently respectable, his extremely respectable opponent. Deal has said it costs 25 per cent of the money collected and disbursed by the government to collect and disburse it. This is one of the most eminent lies ever uttered. The speaker then read a table showing the cost of collecting and disbursing under different administrations and it proved that under Grant the cost was about 34 per cent, on the $1000, the least of all. Mr. Deal draws beautiful pictures of the heavenly calm which prevails in the South—how patriotic it is, and how ready to shed its blood for the Union. Mr. Daggett read a number of extracts from Southern newspapers, full of bitter treason and praises of Jeff. Davis. Mr. Deal was in favor of removing the Chinese from the coast. But what would prevent the Chinese who went home after learning our arts and trades from sending back manufactures which would underbid us, were free trade established? Deal has had a good deal to say about the bullion tax. He and his partner, Mr. Lewis, drew up the bullion compromise bill which Governor Bradley vetoed. The speaker mentioned the fact that Mr. Deal had caused to be printed and circulated in pamphlet form, certain extracts from the Enterprise, shouldering upon him the writing of the same. "Until within the past ten months," said Mr. Daggett, "I have never had control of the Enterprise. Mr. Deal knows it, and when he says I wrote those things, he lies—lies in his throat—lies clear down to the depths of his jaundiced and seditious liver."

Mr. Daggett closed by calling upon the Republicans of Washoe to do their duty and vote the State ticket from top to bottom.

GOVERNOR KINKADEE.

John H. Kinkadee, candidate for governor, spoke briefly. He had not time to make a speech and hadn't a great deal of inclination that way, for he did not hanker with any great longings after public speaking. The Republican convention at Eureka adopted a platform which fully expressed the leading ideas of the party. The bullion tax is the main question of the canvass. He approved heartily of the plank on that subject. It met with his judgment and idea of right. There was one other little plank he approved of—that of declaring the violation of a pledge to the party, a worse offense than the breach of any other obligation. He believed in that thoroughly.

H. H. MIGHELS.

spoke next and went for the scalps of his enemies who were busy misrepresenting his course in reference to the bullion-tax compromise bill. He pointed out the fact that the attitude of those who were in favor of compromise was greatly misunderstood. At the time the mining companies were delinquent about $200,000 and the money was needed to carry on the State government. He was elected to the legislature pledged against compromise. A petition came to him with 2400 signatures, asking him to vote for a modification of the law, and the bonanza people promised to quit the legal fight, which would in all probability keep the matter before the courts for years. The governor and secretary of state were in favor of the compromise. The State had to have the money or borrow it. The county central committee of Ormsby were in favor of it, and the representatives of the Republican party they released the members of the legislature from their pledges. Among those who appealed to him by petition to favor the compromise were R. R. Parkinson and E. J. Parkinson, both of the Tribune, which paper is now abusing him so soundly. As matters now stand Mr. Mighels thought there was no necessity for a compromise. They had the people in the hands of labor. It was not so now. In regard to the building of a State prison in Reno, Mr. Mighels humbly confessed that he had worked against the project tooth and nail. He wished, however, to make himself solid in favor of establishing a State reform school here and if that couldn't be accomplished he was willing that the state prison should be brought down here and that the reform school should be set up at Carson. He was for a reform school somewhere in the state. He believed in watching for and removing the impurities from the rivulets of civilization. Take care of the youngsters and good men would be produced. His enemies had been quoting the Appeal of 1869 against him on the Chinese and railroad questions. He could prove an ad lib. At that time he was in the East with his family. He didn't do anything at that time, he was glad to say, that any man running for office would be sorry to have found out. He had in the Appeal said a good many things about a good many people, and now a good many people were saying a good many things about him. A newspaper man who doesn't say anything isn't worth much. If he is a real journalist he will say things that bite and sting—like the Gazette. He didn't mind the newspaper attacks a great deal, because the people know their spiteful motive. Regarding the Chinese question Mr. Mighels said that notwithstanding all his nonsense Kearney was about the only man who has risen in originality on the subject. He (Mr. Mighels) claimed the credit of having been the only man who had in the way of attempted legislation done anything practical. He had introduced an amendment to the constitution prohibiting the naturalization of the heathen. The speaker then paid his duty to General Kittrell, that man of lung and noise and gave a capital imitation of the great warrior's manner upon the stump. How Kittrell had gained his title, Mr. Mighels hardly knew. He certainly didn't get it up there. Kit, fierce and warlike as he is, didn't shed any blood for his beloved South, and didn't put himself in the way of Like the Northern hero who listened enviously to the tales of daring of a fellow warrior he could proudly claim that the bones of his substitute were whitening the Virginia plains. Mr. Mighels himself didn't care to boast unduly of the mortality he had caused in the Southern army. He had done his best to kill folks when he was in that line and anyway he could truly say that he had killed as many rebels as the rebels had killed of him. He was willing to sit down on that gory record and see that admiring voter advance to the polls.

REV. J. D. HAMMOND.

Pleaded quickly to the charge of being a Methodist minister. The Methodist church represented a sect that had sent as many men to the war when they were needed as any other. The talk about a clergyman having an undue influence in favor of sectarianism on the public schools was absurd. Under the constitution he would find it impossible. He had been a teacher for many years. He was, therefore, in a position to know the needs of the schools. He believed they should be free from all religious interference. The Bible, greatly as he revered it, and although it was his basis of faith and guide of life, he did not—and in this he differed from many of his brethren—believe it should have a place in the schools of the republic. Mr. Hammond saw signs betokening the triumph of the Republican party in Nevada. Friends coming in had told him that Pioche, Elko and Humboldt counties were solid for Kinkadee. It was well.

M. A. MURPHY.

Candidate for attorney-general, endorsed Daggett on the bullion tax, Chinese and railroad questions and endorsed enthusiastically. He had been a resident of Esmeralda county for sixteen years and while he was working there to build up a home, Kittrell was keeping a hotel during the war in British Columbia for confederate refugees. C. S. Varian addressed the audience briefly. He had an ambition to serve the people as district judge. There was an honorable ambition and in the line of his profession. If elected he expected to put in as hard work for four years as any man could. If there were any who could say a word against him let him come forward in print or in private. He challenged and hoped for a review of his record as a man and as a lawyer. He wanted only fair dealing. No fair man could ask less or more than that.

COL. R. H. TAYLOR.

being introduced, said that a better platform or a better ticket than that put forward by the convention at Eureka had never been presented to the people of Nevada. It was a magnificent contrast to the Democratic layout. He had observed that in the announcements at various towns V. E. F. Deal and General Kittrell were hailed to speak, and at the bottom of the poster a postscript appeared to the following effect: "Governor Bradley will be present at each of these meetings. It was like the flaming proclamations of Six-pang's circus, which will exhibit to-night, and there will be a side-show of the bearded woman. Colonel Taylor dealt with the bullion tax and the silver bill and ended with a brilliant approval of Senator Jones and the measures he had so ably advocated. The meeting closed with three rousing cheers for the ticket.

A Perfect Machine.

Mr. C. W. Perry, agent, is exhibiting at our fair, D. M. Osborn & Co's. self-binding harvester and reaper. The complete machine may be seen and examined at the fair grounds, while the self-binding attachment is in active operation at the pavilion. This attachment is certainly a wonderful bit of machinery. The operations of tying a bundle, breaking the thread, and catching the end for the next trial is all carried on by machinery. Mr. C. W. Perry makes the best of this machinery in binding advertisements of the company's various manufactures. We advise our farmers to see Mr. Perry in relation to any articles which they may need in his line.

The Award of Premiums for the Ladies Tournament.

The pavilion was crowded last night to hear the decision rendered by the judges of the equestrian contest. The following award was announced: The first prize, a silver set of six pieces, was awarded to Miss Sadie Sykes, of Reno. The second prize, one dozen silver table spoons, one dozen teaspoons, one dozen silver forks, with elegant case, was awarded to Miss Martha McKissick, of Long Valley. The third prize, a silver cake basket, was awarded to Mrs. Merrill of Verdi. The fourth, a silver water pitcher, two goblets and water bowl, was awarded to Miss Van Sickle of Carson.

Personal.

D. J. Crowley, one of the Truckee Republican's is in town and will observe the wind-up of fair week. Crowley is an industrious and clever lawyer as well as newspaper man. Hon. T. P. Hawley, judge of the supreme court, and soon to be re-elected, also paid us a friendly call this morning. It is always a pleasure to meet Judge Hawley and it will be a privilege to vote for him.

Flowers and Plants.

Mr. F. A. Ebel, the Sacramento nurseryman and florist who has made such a fine exhibit at our fair, will sell off the remainder of his stock on Monday morning next at prices to suit. Here is a chance for the ladies and they will no doubt call on Mr. Ebel in force next Monday.

HO FOR THE SUSANVILLE RACES.

A. J. Bunting, will leave Golden Eagle hotel, Reno, Monday and Thursday mornings at 7 o'clock A. M. for Susanville. Making the through trip in two days, with a six horse coach. Fare $8.

JOTTINGS.

—Henry Duffy and George Lanton, of the Virginia Enterprise are in town to-day doing the fair.

—There will be divine service to-morrow at 11 A. M. and 7 P. M. Rev. C. McKevey officiating. Seats free. All are invited. Sabbath school at 1:30 P. M.

—Episcopal services will be held at Smith's Academy of Music at 11 o'clock A. M. No Sunday school or evening service.

—The raffle for the gold watch, for the benefit of the new building for the Dominican sisters, will be held at Justice Richardson's court-room on Virginia street, this evening at 8 o'clock.

The Races To-Day.

Promptly at the advertised time Maggie C, Harry and Ashley came to the score for the three in five race. Maggie C won the first heat easily in 2:30.

For the second heat the horses came down on the first trial. Maggie C led down the first quarter after which she was headed by Harry who won the first heat in 2:31.

The third heat was won by Maggie C in 2:37 1/2.

The fourth heat was won by Harry in 2:39 1/2, Maggie C breaking badly and coming to a standstill on the last quarter. At 3:50 the horses were called for the last heat. After several false starts they got away well together, Harry inside Ashley second, and Maggie C outside. The half-mile was trotted in 1:11 1/2, Maggie C leading. After the half-mile post Harry collared the mare and although the mare trotted gamely Harry out-trotted her, without a skip, passing under the score an open length ahead; time, 2:29.

A Light Sentence.

In the district court this morning, Robert McGowan, the man who, although he had his pockets full of coin and mining stock, robbed a woman of the town of a certificate of deposit for $240, pleaded guilty to the charge of grand larceny and got off easy with a sentence of one year in the state's prison.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

Don't Forget It. If you are troubled with nervousness, are disheartened, tired of life, fear death or feel out of sorts, as the saying is, you may safely conclude that you have the Dyspepsia or Liver Complaint. The liver is very apt to become torpid at this season of the year, as poisons arising from marshes, stagnant water, venereal, and other, are through inhalation, taken into the blood. Unless the liver is strong and active, and furnishes a supply of fresh and pure blood to drive out the impurities, the above mentioned symptoms surely follow, and if not checked, end in more terrible diseases and death. White's Prairie Flower proves itself the great liver panacea. Its action on the liver is different from any medicine ever compounded. Its cures are truly wonderful. Try it. Price, twenty-five cents and seventy-five cents. For sale by our drug stores, Ochsman & Siskiyon.

NOTICE.—Having established a purchasing agency, Mr. L. Bien will give his personal attention to orders of any kind, such as boots and shoes, furniture, crockery, carpets, millinery goods, groceries, etc. Being in constant business relations and having a thorough acquaintance with all the leading houses, ladies, in ordering through Mr. Bien, will receive the full benefit of his experience and find it more advantageous than doing their own shopping. Address letters, P. O. box 340, oct12 tf.

FLOWERS.—The floral display made by Mr. F. A. Ebel, of Sacramento at the pavilion is the finest ever made in this city and every visitor should examine it. Plants which are of the newest varieties and well cultivated, as Mr. Ebel will sell them during the fair at reasonable prices. Every lover of flowers should not fail to purchase some of them. oct10 tf.

HOES FOR SALE.—Any one wishing to purchase hoe stock-hoes or fat hogs for market can get the same by applying to Mr. John Hoy, Virginia street, Reno. 7-11 tf.

LOST.—One gold car-drop. The finder will be rewarded by returning it to this office. The article was lost between the Gazette office and Barnett's corner. 28-1f.

A CARD TO THE PUBLIC.—I do not sell any goods 20 per cent. below cost, or even at cost, but I offer my first-class stock of clothing, furnishing goods, boots and shoes, hats and caps, trunks and valises, etc., which have been bought for cash at the lowest market rates. Therefore I wish the public to post themselves on my prices before going to the hawking shops where they are always drumming into the ear that they are selling at cost, or below cost. They either bought unsalable goods or they lie to deceive the public; they don't deserve to be patronized. Remember the One Price Store—The White House—No. 19 Commercial Row, next door to the postoffice. L. ABRAHAMSON.

FURNITURE FOR SALE.—Mr. G. Stark has been appointed agent of the California Furniture Manufacturing company, of San Francisco. He will sell furniture at the very lowest figures. Fine black walnut sets, marble top and of the latest pattern, $75 and upward. Other articles as chairs, desks, sofas, etc., in like proportion. Furniture sold by order from parties. Office at the White House, next door to the postoffice, Commercial Row. oct10 tf.

A. J. Clarke has purchased from W. H. Lamb, of San Francisco, the entire stock in trade formerly belonging to James Toombs. Mr. Clarke will fully replenish the stock and store, and continue business at the old stand, where everybody may find bargains. PROPOSED AMENDMENT TO THE Constitution of the State of Nevada, passed at the Eighth Session of the Legislature.
Resolved, That there shall be added to the present Constitution of this State an Article to be called and known as Article XVIII, and which shall be as follows:
ARTICLE XVIII.—The rights of suffrage and office holding shall not be withheld from any male citizen of the United States, by reason of his color or previous condition of servitude. Passed February 13, 1877.
RESOLVED, By the Assembly, the Senate concurring, That Article Eleven (11) of the Constitution of the State of Nevada, be amended by adding to said Article Eleven (11) section ten (10) thereto, which shall read as follows:
SECTION 10. No public funds, of any kind or character whatever, State, county or municipal, shall be used for sectarian purposes. Passed February 27, 1877.
I hereby certify the foregoing to be true copies from the enrolled resolutions on file in my office.
Witness my hand and the Great Seal of State, August 3, 1878.
